ABOUT ME

In August 2000, Drew and her husband, Lee, and two other couples founded Crossroads Christian Academy (CCA). CCA is where traditional education and homeschooling combine. It combines the passion for learning and guides the students to know and love the Lord with all their hearts.

Lee pursued a Major League Baseball career early on, leading Drew to homeschool their two older children. Homeschooling allowed the family to travel with him and have the flexibility needed for quality family life. Being able to homeschool her older children inspired Drew. So when Lee did retire from the game, she knew her passion. She wanted to create a Co-op option in her hometown of Lenoir City, TN.

Drew is so thankful that God has allowed her to partner with parents to help train and prepare their children for kingdom purposes. Outside of being the headmaster of CCA, Drew loves to plant a garden and enjoy homegrown tomatoes and mayonnaise sandwiches at harvest time. She and Lee have four children, all of whom graduated from CCA. Drew is also a proud Nana of three amazing grandchildren attending CCA.
