BIO:

Callie King graduated with a BS in Multidisciplinary Studies (K-8) from Tennessee Technological University in 2007. She went on to teach 6.5 years of 7th-8th grade Literature at North Middle School of Loudon County before embracing life as a domestic engineer following the birth of her son. When her son began Kindergarten at Crossroads Christian Academy (CCA) in 2018, the volunteering began in the art classroom. The following year, Callie accepted a position as CCA's elementary music teacher. Since then, evolving to take on teaching art and music with CCA, and she loves it!

Outside of the classroom, she is a helpmate to her missions-loving husband, mother of two flourishing CCA students, worship leader for Canvas Church, and an adventure advocate. Callie is an enthusiast for anyone doing life with her. Music, dancing, laughter, and the outdoors are all her favorite ways to delight in the Lord. God currently impresses upon her to go "back to the basics" and in all things LOVE!

"It is the supreme art of the teacher to awaken joy in creative expression and knowledge." -Albert Einstein
