BIO:

Amy has been a part of Crossroads Christian Academy (CCA) since 2017. She taught art early on and then transitioned over to an administrative assistant for the last two years. She loves assisting the teachers and other staff in any way.

Organizing the events is a huge passion of hers to create ways to keep the tuition low. So then, more families can enjoy the benefits, fellowship, and community that come with being a part of CCA. Amy is a voracious reader and almost always has a new book in her bag. She is a mom of two exceptional children, Cody (19) and Abigail (16). Cody is currently serving in the US Army, and Abigail will be a senior next year at CCA.

"I love working at CCA and cannot imagine being anywhere else."-Amy
