PUNCTUATION SAVES LIVES

Angie has taught English at Crossroads Christian Academy for three years. When she started homeschooling full-time, she completed her certification in IEW, Institute for Excellence in Writing, and jumped at the chance to teach at CCA when there was an opening. Her favorite part of teaching is being in the classroom with the students, getting to know them. She loves seeing her students grow in their confidence in writing, grammar, and understanding novels. As well as sharing her passion and love for coffee, her students will not hesitate to mention this fun fact.

Angie met her husband, Andy, in Holland while they were both joining the mission field. They love to travel and ride their motorcycles together. They also have three boys, her oldest son (Alex) was born in Seattle, WA, and is in his junior year at CCA. His passions are reading and playing guitars. Angie also has thirteen-year-old twins (Isaac and Nathan) who were born in Hamilton, New Zealand. They are in seventh grade, and both enjoy gaming and sports. As a family, they finally decided to settle down in Knoxville, TN.
