DREW GUETTERMAN

BIO:

Feb 23

In August of 2000, Drew and her husband Lee founded Crossroads Christian Academy (CCA) along with two other couples. CCA is where traditional education and homeschooling combine. It combines the passion for learning and guides the students to know and love the Lord with all their hearts.

Lee pursued a career in Major League Baseball early on, which led Drew to homeschool their two older children. Homeschooling allowed the family to travel with him and have the flexibility needed for quality family life. Being able to homeschool her older children inspired Drew. So when Lee did retire from the game, she knew her passion. She wanted to create a Co-op option back in her hometown of Lenoir City, TN.

Drew is so thankful that God has allowed her the privilege of partnering with parents to help train and prepare their children for kingdom purposes. Outside of being the headmaster of CCA, Drew loves to plant a garden and enjoy homegrown tomato and mayonnaise sandwiches at harvest time. She and Lee have four children, whom all graduated from CCA. Drew is also a proud Nana of three amazing grandchildren that currently attend CCA.
